General Editor is Andrew Hope III. Each issue features new material (such as volume II, #1) or reprints of cultural no longer available (1946 Gov't studies on land rights, Louis Shotridge essays, etc.) This is a student publication, and many covers feature original designs by young artists.

Vol. 1 #1. April 1973. Sitka Land Rights; community development, cover design by Ken Lisbourne, 22pp. $1.00. Out of Print.

Vol.1#3. A Visit to the Tsimshian Indians by Louis Shotridge (1919) cover: old photo of unidentified Indian; 52pp. $1.50. Out of Print.

Vol.1#4 Land Rights of the Kasaan Natives; "Ghost of Courageous Adventurer" by Louis Shotridge; cover: photo of Tlingit knife; June 1973; $1.50. Out of Print.

Vol II #1. Yakutat History by Olaf Abraham (original material from tape recording) includes a short sample in Tlingit with facing translation. 4 color totem design by R. Davis on yellow cover. 22pp. $1.50. (August 1973)

Vol.II#2. Bride of Tongass by Louis Shotridge; black totem design by Robert Davis on Orange cover, 23pp. August 1973; $1.00.

Out of print issues may be reprinted in the near future.

TLINGIT READERS

BOX 25

A.M.U.

Anchorage,Alaska

99504

Tlingit Readers, Inc. is a non profit organization incorporated under the laws of the State of Alaska. Our purpose is to produce materials in and for the Tlingit language. We are severely limited by time (no full time staff) and by lack of money (each book costs over $500 to publish and we depend on sales and donations to continue.) We wish to thank those individuals & organizations who have helped us through grants:JUNEAU A.N.B. Camp #2, The Alaska Native Language Center of The U.ofA., Sheldon Jackson College, and Alaska Methodist U.

Members of the board of Tlingit Readers have donated much time and energy:

Nora Dauenhauer (formerly Florendo)
Andrew Hope III
Dick Dauenhauer
Henry Davis
Katherine Mills

Catalog of Recent Books in Tlingit and on Tlingit Language and Culture as of July 1974

1. Tlingit Reader Series

    1. Doo Goojee Yéenaadei/Tlingit Language Workshop Reader, Ed. by Nora Dauenhauer. A literacy sampler including history, oratory, poetry, dictionary, religious materials, and a key to the writing system. IN TLINGIT 64 pp. April, 1972. Out of print.
    2. Dukt'oot1'/Strong Man told by Frank Johnson (of Ketchikan); transcribed by Nora Dauenhauer. IN TLINGIT. (Southern Dialect); 4 color totem design by Horace Marks on yellow cover; includes key to alphabet; 28 pp. March 1973. $2.00.
    3. Xóotsx X'áyakuwdligadee Shaawat/Bear Husband told by Tom Peters (of Teslin, Y.T.,Yukon) transcribed by Nora Dauenhauer In TLINGIT; 3 color totem design by R.Dauenhauer on gold cover; includes key to alphabet; 32 pp. May 1973; $2.00.
    4. Kudatan Kahídee/The Salmon Box told by Robert Zuboff(of Angoon); transcribed by Henry Davis and students at Sheldon Jackson College; IN TLINGIT; includes song with music transcription; 4 color totem design by Robert Davis on white cover; 18 pp. June 1973; $1.25.

5. Woosh Yáx Yaa Datúwch/Tlingit Math Book by Katherine Mills and students of Hoonah High School; IN TLINGIT, with Glossary; 15 math problems, each illustrated with a black and white drawing, some modern, some traditional; 3 color cover on gold; 24 pp. June 1973; $1.50.
6. Sít Kaa Káx Kana.áa/Glacier Bay History told by Susie James (of Sitka); transcribed by Nora Dauenhauer; IN TLINGIT /4 color totem design by John Marks on tan cover; 28 pp. August 1973; $2.00.
7. Táax'aa/Mosquito told by Robert Zuboff (of Angoon); transcribed by R.Dauenhauer; IN TLINGIT; black totem design by R.Dauenhauer on red cover; 16 pp. August 1973; $1.25.

8-14+ FORTHCOMING READERS; Stories IN TLINGIT are forthcoming by the following story tellers: A.P.Johnson, J.B. Fawcett,George Davis,David Kadashan,Willie Marks, Emma Marks. Oratory readers will include revisions of the speeches from Reader I, and new speeches. These will be published as time and money allow.

II. Instructional Materials

1. Kéet- Kake version by Henry and Claribel Davis; IN ENGLISH; the Tlingit legend of the killer whale; color illustrations throughout text; 3 color killer whale crest design on cover; 16pp; August 1973,$1.50. Written for younger children, illustrations are designed to introduce Tlingit words.
2. Kéet: Teaching Unit by Henry and Claribel Davis;a teaching unit to accompany the legend of the killer whale; 3 color killer whale design on cover; 23pp. includes a bibliography; June 1973; $2.00. Nine lessons including 4 Tlingit language lessons, which introduce some Tlingit nouns and sentence pattern drills. Kéet is the first in a series of elementary Tlingit legends, culture, basic crest designs, as well as some simple Tlingit vocabulary. A second book with teaching unit, Beaver Lengend, is coming soon. Watch for it.
3. Tlingit Spelling Book, ed. by R.Dauenhauer, A one-step-at-a-time approach to SPELLING FOR NATIVE SPEAKERS. NOT FOR TEACHING LANGUAGE TO NON-SPEAKERS.3 color totem design by R.Davis on white cover. 35pp. July 1974,$2.00.Tape recordings are planned to accompany the book, but are not yet available. This book is a brief introduction.More detailed literacy readers a are being prepared by Jeff Leer and Constance Naish.
4. Lingit At.óowoo, ed. by A. Hope, A booklet of Tlingit crests and brief explanations of same. Jan. 1974,$2.00.

Forthcoming Instructional Material

1. Tlingit Verb Dictionary, ed. by Gillian Story & Constance Naish of the Summer Institute of Linguistics. (This is the book we've been waiting for!) Tlingit-English and English-Tlingit; includes superb concise reference grammar; uses revised writing system (as do the Readers and the Lessons noted below); 392pp. In press.
2. Beginning Tlingit, ed. by R. Dauenhauer. Programmed intro to the Tlingit language to aid students in using the Tlingit Readers with the help of the Dictionary. Format emphasizes substitution drills and most lessons include reading excerpts from the Tlingit Readers. Designed for college and high school levels but could be modified for teachers of lower levels. Has been field tested,will be revised and published as time and money allow.

III. Haa Kusteeyée Aya Series

This series is IN ENGLISH. The series title translates "(This is) Our Way of Life."